CHOOSE YOUR SIZE

VarTech's next generation of high definition large screen displays are the perfect solution for public information kiosk, industrial process control, factory floor information systems, production score boards, and any environment requiring high resolution large format digital presentation.

These 1080P and 4K Ultra-High Definition displays have wide viewing angles, high contrast ratios, fast response times, and brightness levels ranging from 350 to 400 nits (depending on model), making them ideal for displaying large amounts of real-time performance and production information.
